First Nations Owned

Mitchell Ross, a proud Bidjigal man from La Perouse, founded Muru Group in 2012 to make a lasting difference for First Nations peoples and became a catalyst for positive change and create a pathway to a brighter future. In 2014, Muru Group partnered with COS to form Muru Office Supplies a majority First Nations owned workplace products supplier.

Muru, meaning 'Pathway', has become one of Australia's largest First Nations majority-owned and operated workplace supplies companies, offering a wide range of products for every room in the office.

Local Warehouse & Delivery

Muru is powered by COS for its national operations and logistics. COS has invested heavily in creating a nationwide presence, with an extensive network of sales offices, warehouses and distribution centres across Australia. Each branch is tailored to local requirements and delivers a local service experience.

The warehouses are quality-assured state-of-the-art facilities with a dvanced technology to ensure industry-leading order accuracy. All logistical services are maintained in-house with the flexibility to provide a range of additional services.

Community Minded

Certified by Supply Nation, Muru Office Supplies dedicates a percentage of profits to support First Nations communities, with over $1.1 million contributed since 2014. Key initiatives include strengthening early learning through the Douglas Community Early Childhood Hub in Far North Queensland, supporting youth development through The Busy School's R.E.S.P.E.C.T Program, creating First Nations youth pathways through IndigiGrow, and supporting Her Futures Foundation's entrepreneurship and employment programs for women.
